

A photograph of a male runner crossing the finish line of a marathon. He is wearing a white singlet and shorts, and is smiling with his arms raised. A large digital clock in the background displays the time 2:08:12. The banner above the clock reads 'TCS NEW YORK CITY MARATHON' and 'TCSA CONSULTANCY SERVICES'. To the right, a person in a grey shirt and dark pants is holding a banner that says 'Foot Locker'. The overall scene is dimly lit, suggesting dusk or dawn.
